

Clare Long, Director of Human Resources

Clare N. Long was named Director of Human Resources in 2011. She oversees all aspects of human resources for the Agency including employee and labor relations, employee development, Equal Employment Opportunity coordination, workforce planning and compliance with employment laws.

Prior to joining OHFA, Ms. Long worked for the Ohio Department of Administrative Services as the Deputy Director of the Human Resources Division where she administered Ohio's civil service and human resources operation for state employees. She also served as Deputy Tax Commissioner at the Ohio Department of Taxation overseeing the human resources, employee training, budget, legislative, tax analysis and tax enforcement divisions. She began her career with the State of Ohio at the Ohio Department of Commerce where she served as Chief of Human Resources and Chief Legal Counsel. Ms. Long earned a Bachelor of Arts from Rhodes College and her Juris Doctor from the University of Alabama School of Law.